

Area Orientation Information for New Arrivals

Benvenuti a Napoli! (Welcome to Naples!) To help you adjust to your new duty station during the holiday season, we are offering a modified Area Orientation to accommodate holiday schedules of families and military personnel.

Please note the following changes to the Area Orientation Schedule during the weeks of Christmas and New Years.

Week of Christmas: A two-day Area Orientation will be held 23-24 December at the Fleet and Family Support Center (FFSC), Village Forum, Support Site from 0815-1400.

Week of New Years: A two-day Area Orientation will be held 30-31 December at the Fleet and Family Support Center (FFSC), Village Forum, Support Site from 0815-1400.

Sojourner's Permits are required of all non-military arrivals. Printed instructions will be handed out on the first day of Area Orientation, however Sponsors need to assist newcomers with the process, as this will not be done at Area Orientation for these 2 holiday weeks. Please call Navy Legal Service Office at 626-4576 for holiday office hours. Fingerprinting will be accomplished in January 2004 date to be determined.

Reminders:

- No AO bus support both weeks. New arrivals living at CAPO BEQ need to make plans thru sponsor, or use the "Home to Work" buses to be at the Area Orientation for these 2 holiday weeks at the Support Site.
- No bus tour provided. Interested personnel are invited to take the Area Orientation bus tour 9 January 2004.
- CMVRO Driver's Study Sheets are handed out on the first day of Area Orientation with instructions that the test will be given on the 2nd day of Area Orientation.

Navy Mass Check-In: Held 22 December and 29 December at the Fellowship Hall, Capodichino, starting at 0830.

Members from other services should consult their Element for details on the Check-In process.*
